Beachwalker Rentals, Seabrook & Kiawah Islands

In the celebrated South Carolina Lowcountry the barrier island of Seabrook constitutes a vacationer's dream realized. Seabrook is unique in that the island is totally private and completely owned by residents. The island is a quiet, secluded retreat offering special attention to maintaining its beautiful landscapes of live oak draped in moss, marshes, beaches and golf courses. The island's amenities include The Club with the fabulous Seaview restaurant serving fresh creative local cuisine. The Equestrian Center and miles of riding trails make for a romantic relaxing day. This is an island destination you just must check out. Beachwalker Rentals offers homes and villas and a quality of service fondly remembered by guests to Seabrook Island.

Like Kiawah, the island's beauty is striking – hosting a variety of fascinating wildlife. Seabrook encompasses 2,200 acres with 3.5 miles of unspoiled beach along the Atlantic and along the banks of the pristine Edisto River. Seabrook has more than a thousand permanent residents with luxury homes and villas scattered along the island's beaches, marshes, lakes and golf courses.

Beachwalker Rentals is an independent Kiawah resort rental company specializing in Kiawah and Seabrook vacations. Stay in exquisite Kiawah & Seabrook Island beach rentals, vacation homes, vacation rentals, villas, and cottages in with oceanfront, oceanside, pool, lagoon or golf views only miles from historic Charleston. After more than two decades of arranging unforgettable vacations, Beachwalker Rentals built a solid reputation for value and warm, friendly service. Many families return year after year making their vacation plans with Beachwalker. Let them help make Kiawah or Seabrook Island your vacation spot for years to come. You have family at the beach!

Kiawah Island's Vanderhorst Plantation with an additional security gate offers beautiful homes, exquisite beaches, and beautiful vistas from every direction. Vanderhorst Plantation is also home to the Osprey Point golf course and the Ocean Course, site of the 1991 Ryder Cup Match and 1997 World Cup of Golf. If the choice of a select vacation home in an area on Kiawah with controlled access appeals to you, consider a private home in Vanderhorst Plantation or Osprey Beach.

The Village at Turtle Beach is an intimate beachfront retreat recalling the island life of yesteryear. There are brick-lined walkways, picket fences, wildflowers and old fashioned street lamps. The manicured croquet lawn and a gazebo bandstand will make it seem like a trip back in time. The homes will remind you of coastal cottages from days gone by. Each is custom-built with wraparound porches, high ceilings, hardwood floors, metal roofs, fireplaces, and completely modern kitchens. This village offers a beautiful, private pool exclusively for Turtle Beach sunning and swimming. The Jack Nicklaus-designed Turtle Point Golf Course is steps away. Tennis, shopping and dining are all nearby.

Dear Harry,

What are you going to do now? The holidays are over, the house looks a little plain with all the festive decorations gone, friends are hiding out from the weather, and looking out the window just depresses you. What do you need now? If it is relaxation, rejuvenation, pampering, exercise, adventure or just time away we have it in this special after the holidays issue.

Our feature destination this month is Seabrook Island and Beachwalker Rentals for incredible natural island beauty and relaxation. For adventure we have ski and snowboarding destinations. How about just a quick escape weekend for romance or pampering? We have a new section called Plan Ahead to help you keep track of some of the wonderful events coming up soon in the southeast and our very popular Gem of the South. We are sure you will find just what you need in this issue.

• Ski Resorts in Blowing Rock and Boone, NC

Snow blankets the Blue Ridge Mountains, and fires pop and crackle in the fireplaces around Blowing Rock and Boone this time of year. While it's technically off-season for tourists, skiers and romance seekers know it's one of the best seasons to experience North Carolina's High Country. Blowing Rock is a charming town with a lively Main Street full of shops.

Boone's King Street is one of the main drags in downtown Boone near Beech Mountain. With 15 slopes and the highest elevation of any ski resort in eastern North America it's a favorite place to ski. Before leaving Boone check out Appalachian State University's, Turchin Center for the Visual Arts a 40,000 square foot center curates classical and contemporary art exhibits in a variety of media.

• Little Gem of the South Naples, FL

unbelievable sunsets, warm, light Gulf breezes, beautiful sandy beaches, and gentle waves just large enough to make that soft, slapping sound when they hit the beach, Naples awaits the discerning traveler. Naples is the perfect beach destination, with over 10 miles of picturesque public beaches and miles of nature preserves bordering the Gulf of Mexico. Whether you prefer a quiet and secluded stretch of sand where you can immerse yourself in a good book, or a park at which to play a game of volleyball and enjoy a barbeque with friends, you're sure to find a Naples beach that puts a smile on your face. Other activities include sailing and windsurfing, and many boats are available for charter or day cruises.

In Naples the time is always right for shopping: a major local activity in every season. The Avenues is a large retail area in town. Third Street and Fifth Avenue, in particular, have a selection that rivals Palm Beach's Worth Avenue. The Mediterranean-styled Village at Venetian Bay overlooks the water and offers 50 boutiques in which to shop. Tin City is a renovated section of Old Naples with a collection of 40 stores selling everything from anklets to toy zebras. A variety of merchandise can also be found at the Coastland Center on the Tamiami Trail and the Waterside Shops at Pelican Bay.
